In this week's recap: Stocks slip on mixed economic news.

Weekly Economic Update

Presented by Don Clark, MBA, CFP®, June 6, 2022

THE WEEK ON WALL STREET

In a holiday-shortened week of volatile trading, stocks surrendered some of the previous week's strong gains.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 0.94%, while the Standard & Poor's 500 declined 1.20%. The Nasdaq Composite index lost 0.98% for the week. The MSCI EAFE index, which tracks developed overseas stock markets, slipped 0.17%. ^{1,2,3}

AN UNCERTAIN MARKET

Stocks experienced wild swings last week, in part, due to ongoing uncertainty over economic health and the path of inflation. Investors seemed conflicted when interpreting the data, in some instances viewing economic strength as a negative since it may mean more aggressive rate hikes from the Fed.

Illustrative of how this uncertainty has played out, stocks surged higher on Thursday despite comments from Fed Vice Chair Lael Brainard indicating it's unlikely that the Fed will pause on rate hikes. Then on Friday, stocks dropped as a better-than-expected jobs report raised concerns about monetary policy.

STRONG JOB GROWTH

The U.S. economy added 390,000 jobs in May, a slowdown from recent months but higher than consensus estimates. Job gains registered in several categories, led by leisure and hospitality, professional and business services, and warehousing and transportation. The retail sector lost jobs. ⁴

The unemployment rate remained unchanged at 3.6%. Wage growth cooled off, with a 12-month increase of 5.2%, down from April's year-over-year jump of 5.5%. Finally, the labor participation rate ticked higher again, reflecting how job availability is helping to pull Americans off the labor-market sidelines. ⁵

TIP OF THE WEEK

If you want to improve your credit score, an inactive credit card will not help (and it may even hurt). The key factors in credit score determination are recent activity and recent payment history.

THE WEEK AHEAD: KEY ECONOMIC DATA

Thursday: Jobless Claims.

Friday: Consumer Price Index (CPI). Consumer Sentiment.

Companies may reschedule when they report earnings without notice.

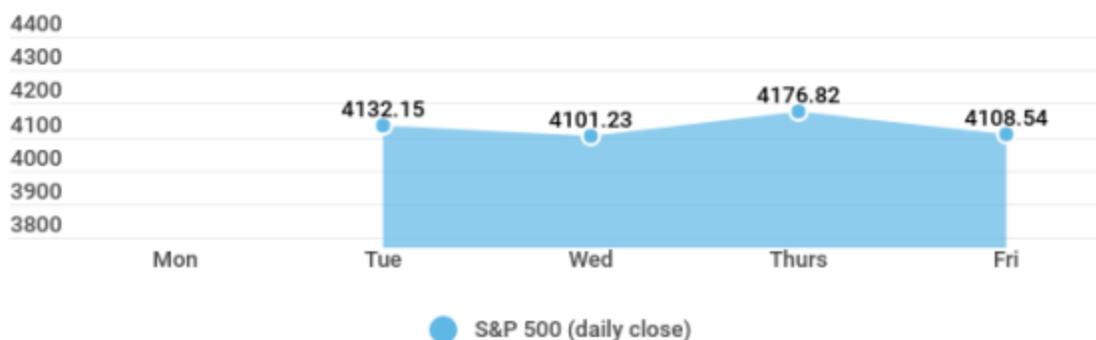

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“I can accept failure. Everyone fails at something. But I can't accept not trying. Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence wins championships.”

THE WEEKLY RIDDLE

There is a 5-letter, single-syllable word that you can take 4 letters out of, leaving you with only a single letter that has the same pronunciation as the original 5-letter word. What is this word? (Hint: it involves waiting in line.)

LAST WEEK'S RIDDLE: There are 2 nouns in the English language that become men's names when you capitalize them – and when you capitalize them, you alter their pronunciation. Name either or both of these 2 nouns, both of which end in 'b'.

ANSWER: Herb and Job (herb and job).
